Instructions to Families

Adams 14 is providing its students access to home learning opportunities during the District closure. For students and families without access to a reliable computer or device at home, the District is offering student Chromebooks for parents and guardians to check out on March 31, and April 1 and 2.

For families to qualify to check out a Chromebook, your student must:
- be currently registered and enrolled at an Adams 14 school,
- have access to a reliable internet connection at home, and
- have no home access to a reliable computer or device (iPad or tablet) that can comfortably access home learning resources.

Instructions

To check-out a District Chromebook, start by completing the online Chromebook Checkout Form, or by completing this form at the drive-through service set up at Adams City High School on one of the scheduled dates and times identified below.

Note: If someone in your family has symptoms of illness, do not visit the drive-through service. Instead, indicate on the form the name and relationship of another healthy adult who will pick up the device, and send that person in place of the parent/guardian at one of the drive-through times.

If you are unable to complete the checkout form before arriving at the drive-through service, a District employee can either text you the phone-friendly, easy-to-complete form when you visit the drive-through, or help you complete it while maintaining safe social distancing practices.
